Build their stadium. Transfer your team of their favorite athletes. Manage your team and compete on leagues and cups in First Touch Online, a new FIFA Ultimate Team management mode that features real-world player attributes. FIFA 22 features a new 2-vs. 2 multiplayer mode called Classic KO, a 2-vs-2 knockout tournament mode based on historical KO matches. AI Line-ups: The squad management, stadium and transfer market have been improved. Players now have distinct personalities. They demonstrate their personality during the game, using their skills and playstyle based on how they want to be played. All AI players have new skills, tactics and characteristics. The new Traits system gives players new traits that affect their playstyle, skill levels and attributes. New Goalkeepers: New Goalkeeper Traits give players new circumstances while keeping their unmatched composure. There are nine new Goalkeeper Traits to choose from, including many that were not available in previous FIFA titles. New goalkeepers demonstrate their temperament and intelligence with unique set of skills and attributes. New Defenders: Defenders have been enhanced, featuring new abilities, new tactics and behaviors. New behaviors and playstyles are added to defenders with new defensive goals, skills, attributes, and new Traits. New Midfielders: New skills and behaviors add even more dimension to midfielders as they adapt to their team's tactics and playstyle. New behaviors and playstyles can be added to midfielders with new defensive and offensive tactics and traits. Goalkeeper Tactics: With Goalkeeper Traits, three goalkeeper tactics have been created. These playstyles match the qualities of individual goalkeepers, with one player style giving more control to the goalkeeper. Skills can be used by each goalkeeper to influence the match. New Attacking Tactics: New player styles allow attacking players to adapt to their team's tactics and playstyle. They use new attacking and defensive skills and use new tactics and behaviors to exploit the weaknesses of the opposing team. New Movement: New Movement has been added to the game. Players can now sprint while dribbling, dribble, and make run and turn changes. Players can use new dribbling and sliding moves, creating shots and passes. New Tactics: New tactics and transitions have been added for shooting and passing. Every move can be turned into a shot by specific players. Players can now use change of pace and timing to release passing options. Players can now use the Pass Inverted and Pass In
